Travel by Plane

Plane travel after 9/11/2001 is no joking matter. Follow instructions from authorities without complaint. Do not joke about terrorists, bombs, etc. You may be arrested, and will not be allowed on board the plane. Each toiletry item (specifically liquids) must be in a 3oz or smaller container and placed in a clear plastic quart size zip top bag. Footwear must be removed and checked, so don't wear your Roman lace-up sandals that day. As you approach the metal detector, remove ALL metal including keys, glasses, belts, cell phones, etc. before moving through. If you set the detector off, you will have to be manually checked, which takes extra time. If you are selected for a random search, comply and cooperate. Additional restrictions will be communicated prior to travel by plane.
